
Harlan Morris Perkins

Harlan Morris Perkins

Harlan M. Perkins passed on peacefully on March 1, 2013 at the age of 92. Harlan was born on February 5, 1921, to Harry and Catherine Perkins of Seattle.

Harlan went to "West Queen Anne Grade School", "Queen Anne High School", and the "University of Washington" for a time. Harlan married Reba Brace of Seattle, in 1943. They resided on Vashon Island for 20 years, then moved to Seattle for several years and retired in Hansville, Washington. He was very active in the community of Hansville and loved the people there.

Harlan worked as a contractor, engineer, and heating and air conditioning estimator. He was a very talented and skillful man as an artist, craftsman, and model maker. He had a special place in his heart for the beauty of nature, gardening and his cats.

He is survived by his sister; Marcia Morris, his son; Todd Perkins, his daughter; Jan Epperson, five grandchildren; Tim Wall, LaNette Valentine, Nick Rea, Graham Epperson and Blair Gurick. He also had eleven great-grandchildren; Ashley and Zachary Wall, Drew and Lucie Valentine, Emilie and Ian Rea, Isabel and Chloe Epperson and Addie, Micah and Samuel Gurick.

He was loved by his family and friends and will be greatly missed.

There will be a "Celebration of his Life" gathering held at "Driftwood Key Clubhouse", on Friday, March 8th, from 12:00 Noon until 2:00 p.m. in Hansville, Washington.

Another celebration of his life for family and friends in the Seattle area, will be held this coming July.

Published in The Seattle Times on March 6, 2013
